DRACULA GOES TO COLLEGE

"Dracula," the original vampire play by Deane and Balderston, adapted from the novel by Bram Stoker, will appear on two successive weekends, October 4-5 and 11-12, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium.

This is a full-scale student production sponsored by the Gallaudet Drama Department. Tickets are still available and are priced $1.50 for students and children and $2.50 for adults.

THE SUBWAY IS COMING

Sunday afternoon, October 27th at 2 p.m. a tour will be conducted of the D.C. Metro now under construction.

Sponsored by the Center for Continuing Education, the metro tour will include viewing of construction sites and a slide presentation.

It is suggested that all tour participants wear heavy shoes and old clothes. No children under twelve years of age will be permitted and women must wear slacks.

Reservations must be made by calling Lillian, 575-voice or TTY.

THANK HEAVEN FOR LITTLE GIRLS

Because of popular demand, the Center for Continuing Education has obtained additional tickets to the Arlingtonian Dinner Theater's performance of GIGI.

The dinner-theater performance for Gallaudet staff and faculty is November 8th at 6 p.m. Interpreters will be there and for only $11.00 per person, you get dinner, the show, parking, tips and taxes.

For reservations call 575-voice or TTY. Plenty of tickets are available so invite a friend.

SCULPTURE LECTURE

James M. Goode, author of the recently published book, The Outdoor Sculpture of Washington, D.C., will speak at a free lecture on the outdoor sculpture of Washington, D.C., Monday, September 30th, at 8 p.m.

The lecture will be held in the Dimock Gallery of the George Washington University, off the lower lounge of Lisner Auditorium on 21st and H streets, N.W.

Goode is Curator of the Smithsonian Institution Building. His lecture is being given in conjunction with the current exhibition in the Dimock Gallery, "Sculpture in Living Spaces," photographs of contemporary outdoor sculpture in public places and private collections in the Washington area.

This is an excellent opportunity to acquire a knowledge and appreciation of all the outdoor art in Washington.

BASICS FOR ADULTS

On Saturday, September 21, twenty-five teachers and administrators from eight adult basic education programs for deaf adults in the Washington metropolitan area attended an all-day workshop at Gallaudet College.

Directed by Linda Donnels, Adult Basic Education Specialist for the Center for Continuing Education, the workshop provided materials and information for teachers of adult basic education to deaf adults.

Guest speakers were Dr. Philip Goldberg, director of Gallaudet's Tutorial Center, and Marcia Boardman, an instructor at the Tutorial Center.

This workshop was the first ever held for adult basic education teachers of deaf adults.

SPORTS NEED SUPPORTS

The Department of Physical Education and Athletics is seeking several Bus-Limo drivers to drive the various Gallaudet athletic teams to away contests and for other trips.

Anyone available for helping out the athletic program should contact Robert Jackson in the Department of Physical Education and Athletics. How else are they going to get there in time for the opening kickoff?

IF THERE BE ANY SICK AMONG YOU

Sheryl Johnson, secretary in the Office of Development, is hospitalized for a week and can be cheered up in Holy Cross Hospital.

Dr. Christopher Garnett, professor of Philosophy, is in the Prince Georges Hospital in Cheverly, Maryland, room E-713.

How about a little personal "just what the doctor ordered" card or call.

Dear Gang,
Arrived tired but safe and sound. Our friend's apartment is lovely and is right in the shadow of the Eiffel Tower.

Today we wandered around the Louvre-one could spend months there-and tomorrow we hope to see Notre Dame and La Cite.

Will keep you posted!

DANISH GYMNASTIC AND FOLKLORE BALLET

The Cultural Affairs Committee is bringing the Danish Gym Team from Denmark for a special performance at Gallaudet. The Danish Gym team has been seen all over the world.

It will be a full evening's performance including a variety of modern rhythmic gymnastics, artistic vaulting and tumbling and an exciting selection of traditional Danish folkdances in colorful national costumes.

The performance will be held in the large gym in Hughes Memorial and tickets can be purchased at the door, $2.00 for students/children and $3.50 general admission.

Don't forget, Monday, September 30th, at 8:00 p.m.

THIS AND THAT

Arthur Jones is a new addition to the Gallaudet staff. He begins work this week for the physical plant.

The Faculty/Staff football team held the Gallaudet Seniors to a scoreless tie in intramurals touch football. Who's getting old?

Robin Battison, Linguistics Research Lab, just returned from a speaking engagement to fellow linguists in Canada.
